

Subject: RhinoBond Minimum o/c Spacing

16-01

Please be advised, the minimum o/c spacing allowed between RhinoBond plates is 5 in (127 mm). This is important when creating perimeter lines and installing corner enhancements into structural purlins. The 5 in (127 mm) spacing allows for the proper amount of room for the RhinoBond welding machine to produce an adequate bond between the plate and membrane.

