*Because of the limitations of process color printing, the color samples contained herein are close approximations of actual colors and should not be relied upon for true color or tone. Final color matching should be made with an actual sample of the product and color to be used. Gloss level will vary depending on product used. Custom colors are available. Minimum quantities, adequate lead time and up-charges may apply. The above is for use with Sikafloor® 250 ESD and 270 ESD only. Please consult Sika Industrial Flooring for further information and pricing. Our most current local Sales Conditions shall apply. Please consult the most current local Product Data Sheet prior to any use.
